Checklist for the grant of permission to import or manufacture for sale or for distribution of medical device which does not have predicate medical device in Form MD-27 under Medical Devices Rules, 2017

Section no. Cover Letter 2.0 Application (Form MD-26) 5.0 Eyes Challan 4.0 Justification for the proposed class of device along with supporting documents 5.0 Regulatory status of the device if approved by any National regulatory authority of the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc. along with the notarized copy of approval letter. 6.0 Design analysis data of the Investigational medical device 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc. (wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and perfo	Form	Application in Form MD-26 (Medical Devices which does not have predicate
 no. 1.0 Cover Letter 2.0 Application (Form MD-26) 3.0 Fees Challan 4.0 Justification for the proposed class of device along with supporting documents 5.0 Regulatory status of the device if approved by any National regulatory authority of the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc. along with the notarized copy of approval letter. 6.0 Design analysis data of the Investigational medical device 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import	Type	device)
 2.0 Application (Form MD-26) 3.0 Fees Challan 4.0 Justification for the proposed class of device along with supporting documents 5.0 Regulatory status of the device if approved by any National regulatory authority of the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc. along with the notarized copy of approval letter. 6.0 Design analysis data of the Investigational medical device 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Cinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any). 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical devic		Checklist Name
 2.0 Application (Form MD-26) 3.0 Fees Challan 4.0 Justification for the proposed class of device along with supporting documents 5.0 Regulatory status of the device if approved by any National regulatory authority of the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc. along with the notarized copy of approval letter. 6.0 Design analysis data of the Investigational medical device 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc. (wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two years. 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the		Cover Letter
 3.0 Fees Challan Justification for the proposed class of device along with supporting documents 5.0 Regulatory status of the device if approved by any National regulatory authority of the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc. along with the notarized copy of approval letter. 6.0 Design analysis data of the Investigational medical device 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc. (wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical
 4.0 Justification for the proposed class of device along with supporting documents 5.0 Regulatory status of the device if approved by any National regulatory authority of the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc. along with the notarized copy of approval letter. 6.0 Design analysis data of the Investigational medical device 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigation al medical device if marketed in the countries
 5.0 Regulatory status of the device if approved by any National regulatory authority of the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc. along with the notarized copy of approval letter. 6.0 Design analysis data of the Investigational medical device 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc. (wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc. along with the notarized copy of approval letter. 6.0 Design analysis data of the Investigational medical device 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing	5.0
 6.0 Design analysis data of the Investigational medical device 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 11.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical i		countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan,
 6.1 Design input, design output and design control documents, etc. along with design verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority (in case of import) 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the c verification and validation report 6.2 Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent
Performance of the Medical Device 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc. (wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent	6.1
 6.3 Device specification including the test parameters and its reference protocol to be carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any). 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case o	6.2	Essential Principles checklist for demonstrating conformity to the Safety and carried out on the finished device along with the test report 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc. (wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturing or or authorized agent		Performance of the Medical Device
 6.4 Mechanical test, electrical tests, Reliability tests, software verification & validation, any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	6.3
 any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable) 7.0 Stability Study data generated (if any) 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	6.4
 8.0 Risk Management Report on the applied medical device 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 		any performance test, Ex vivo tests, etc.(wherever applicable)
 9.0 Biocompatibility and Animal performance study data for applied medical device (as applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 		Stability Study data generated (if any) applicable) 10.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	8.0
 11.0 Proposed Labelling information 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	9.0	. , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
 11.0 In case if the device contains drug, whether the drug is approved in India, If yes, ther details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	10.0
 details of approval no. and company name and validity of approval etc., 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 		·
 12.0 If the drug is not approved in India, the following documents are required to be submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	11.0
 submitted: Data on animal toxicology, Reproduction studies, Teratogenic studies, Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	12 0
Perinatal studies, Mutagenicity, Carcinogenicity, Chemical and Pharmaceutical information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent	12.0 information, etc. 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 13.0 Clinical Investigation data including that carried out in India or other countries (if any), 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent
 14.0 Details of countries where the investigational medical device is being sold/marketed from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	13.0
 from last two year (in case of import) 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	10.0
 15.0 Post marketing surveillance data of the investigational medical device if marketed in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	14.0
 in the countries viz. United Kingdom, United States of America, Australia, Canada, Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	15.0
Japan, etc, from last two years. 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent
 16.0 Details on evidence that there is no theoretical possibility of any difference in the behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
 behavior and performance in Indian population 17.0 Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 	16.0	• • • •
objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent	17.0	Undertaking in writing to conduct post marketing clinical investigation with the 18.0 Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration, in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent 		objective of safety and performance of such investigational medical device as per
in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import) 19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent		protocol approved by the Central Licensing Authority
19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent	18.0	Notarized copy of overseas manufacturing site or establishment or plant registration,
19.0 Constitution details of domestic manufacturer or authorized agent		in the country of origin issued by the competent authority (in case of import)
20.0 Other information (if any)	20.0	Other information (if any)